

Grady Management, Inc.

David Ayala

ASSISTANT CONTROLLER

With over 20 years of property management experience, David Ayala has served in various roles in the industry. He began working in tax credit leasing in northern Virginia, and moved up quickly to become property manager of class A properties in Montgomery County. In 2010, David joined our Grady Accounting team, and as Assistant Controller works hand-in-hand with the Director of Accounting and the Chief Financial Officer.

He is a believer in motivation for success, and promotes practices that recognize diversity and the achievement of the company's core values. David's responsibilities include oversight of financial reporting and providing the necessary support to effectively serve our clients and investors.
